

Resetting System Clock Stops IVR Service Requests

Problem Summary	Resetting the system clock on the Call Server causes the IVR Service to stop functioning.
Error Message	None
Possible Cause	Changing the time of the system clock on the Unified CVP Call Server causes the IVR Service to stop accepting calls.
Recommended Action	Do not reset the Windows system clock on a machine running Unified CVP. Resetting the Windows system clock is not supported on a Call Server.
Release	Release 7.0(2)
Associated CDETS #	None.