

Main page: Cisco Unified MeetingPlace, Release 7.0

Up one level: Integration

The Microsoft Office Communicator (MOC) for Cisco Unified MeetingPlace Release 7.0 integration allows MOC users to escalate a text-based instant messaging session into a voice meeting hosted by Cisco Unified MeetingPlace. The integration uses a Cisco Unified MeetingPlace Live Communications Server (LCS) Gateway (installed on the Cisco Unified MeetingPlace Web Server) to integrate Cisco Unified MeetingPlace with Microsoft Office Communicator.

- Prerequisites for Installing the Microsoft Office Communicator for Cisco Unified MeetingPlace Integration
- Installing the Cisco Unified MeetingPlace LCS Gateway
- How to Perform Initial Configuration of the Cisco Unified MeetingPlace LCS Gateway
- How to Configure Users
- How to Configure Security for the Cisco Unified MeetingPlace LCS Gateway
- Troubleshooting the Microsoft Office Communicator for Cisco Unified MeetingPlace Integration
- Uninstalling the Microsoft Office Communicator for Cisco Unified MeetingPlace Integration
- Upgrading the Microsoft Office Communicator for Cisco Unified MeetingPlace Integration from Release 6.0 to Release 7.0