

Main page: Cisco Unified MeetingPlace, Release 7.0

Up one level: Configuration

We recommend that you monitor heavily used systems at short intervals, such as biweekly or weekly. Monitor systems with lighter use less frequently, such as once a month.

- IIS File Deletion
- Configuring the Web Server to Synchronize with an NTP Server
- How to Manually Synchronize the Web Server with an NTP Server
- How to Manually Synchronize the Web Server in a Domain
- Changing the Time Zone
- Checking Which Conferences Are Currently Running
- Checking the Versions of Local Cisco Unified MeetingPlace Web Conferencing Services
- How to Schedule a Maintenance Window
- Optimizing the Performance of a Web Server
- Rebooting the Server
- How to Monitor Cisco Unified MeetingPlace Web Conferencing Activities
- How to Configure the Lumberjack Logging Utility
- How to Switch the Order of IP Addresses on the Web Server