

Main page: Cisco Unified MeetingPlace, Release 7.0

Up one level: Troubleshooting

Failover Replication Fails After Adding New Node 1

Problem: As part of the failover configuration between two Application Servers, user switched on replication with sync via mp_replication switchON command. The replication failed.

Possible Cause: A table is locking due to the processes on an active server. Both servers must be in standby mode before attempting to synchronize them.

Solution: Run the mp_replication switchON with sync command again.