Cisco_Unified_MeetingPlace,_Release_7.0_--_Unattended_Ports_Report_Page

Main page: Cisco Unified MeetingPlace, Release 7.0

Up one level: Reference Information

Use this report to see what percentage of scheduled ports were not used during a specified time range. The output can help you determine the appropriate settings for your overbook and floater ports.

To find this page, click Reports > Unattended Ports Report.

Note: This page was introduced in Cisco Unified MeetingPlace Release 7.0.2.

Table: Field Reference: Unattended Ports Report Page

Field	Description
	Select an output option.
Destination	The File option uses the Portable Network Graphics (PNG) format.
	Default: Screen
Date	Default: today (mm/dd/yyyy)
	The hour you want the port utilization report data to begin.
Start time
	Default: 8:00 AM
	The hour you want the port utilization report data to end.
End time
	Default: 5:00 PM
	Whether you want report data about voice, web, or video meetings.
Conference type	meetings.
	Default: Voice

Table: Field Reference: Unattended Ports Report Page

Cisco_Unified_MeetingPlace,_Release_7.0_--_Unattended_Ports_Report_Page

Output Reference: Unattended Ports Report

The report output is a chart that shows the following information:

- Date and times represented by the report.
- Number of licensed ports on the system for the selected Conference type.
- Unattended Ports (red data)-Percentage of scheduled ports that exceeded the actual number of meeting participants.
- No Show Ports (blue data)-Percentage of scheduled ports for meetings that never took place
- Average percentage of unused scheduled ports during the specified time range.

Related Topics

• Running Reports and Exporting Data from Cisco Unified MeetingPlace