

WebConnect provides seamless integration between multiple internal and external web servers through a single URL. Making use of a single database and a customer-defined rollover sequence, WebConnect ensures the availability of Cisco Unified MeetingPlace Web Conferencing resources while still offering the benefits of a consistent user experience.

See the following sections:

- About WebConnect
- Prerequisites for Configuring WebConnect
- How to Configure WebConnect