

A segmented meeting access configuration allows you to provide external access to your users while maintaining network security. Although you can provide external access to Cisco Unified MeetingPlace web conferences by simply opening ports in your firewall, we do not recommend this option because it lacks security.

- About Segmented Meeting Access for Web Conferencing
- Preinstallation Tasks: Web Conferencing in an SMA-2S Configuration
- Installation Tasks: Web Conferencing in an SMA-2S Configuration
- Postinstallation Tasks: Web Conferencing in an SMA-2S Configuration

Note: Before reviewing this information, please read the System Requirements.