

Identify Cluster Issues after IP/Hostname change

Problem Summary	Identify Cluster Issues after IP/Hostname change
Error Message	N/A
Possible Cause	N/A
Recommended Action	Using CET tool check whether nodeconfig object and DB component config have been updated or not. For following things a remote user will be needed to login to the server. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. /opt/cisco/uccx/ClusterData/profile.ini on both nodes should be updated with new IP in case of IP Address change. 2. If it's a HA setup then /opt/cisco/uccx/conf/intraclustercomm.ips should be updated with new IP on other node in case of IP Address change. 3. /usr/local/cm/db/informix/etc/sqlhosts.uccx should be updated with new information. 4. In /opt/cisco/uccx/desktop/conf/sitesetup/prefs.cfg, LDAP Host 1, LDAP Host 2, and/or IOR HOSTNAME should have been updated with new IP in case of IP address change. 5. In /usr/local/thirdparty/jakarta-tomcat/webapps/TUP/CAD/Maintenance/TUP.ini, LDAP Server A and/or LDAP Server B should have been updated with new IP in case of IP address change.
Release	Release 8.0(1)
Associated CDETS #	