

DistributedDirector

Definition

Method of distributing Web traffic by taking into account Web server availability and relative client-to-server topological distances to determine the optimal Web server for a client. DistributedDirector uses the Director Response Protocol (DRP) to query DRP server agents for Border Gateway Protocol (BGP) and Interior Gateway Protocol (IGP) routing table metrics.

Related Resource

Cisco Trademarks