

Fast Switching

Definition

In Fast Switching, a route cache is used to expedite packet switching through a router. This process is different from process switching.

Related Resource

Cisco Trademarks