

Agent does not see the expected layout with respect to the tabs and gadgets

Problem Summary	After the administrator makes a change to the layout of the Finesse agent desktop, the agent does not see the expected layout.
Error Message	None
Possible Cause	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. If agents are signed in when the administrator makes a change to the layout, they may be using the old layout. 2. If at a later time, Finesse is restarted and agents sign in immediately after the restart, agents may be using the old layout for a short time (10 seconds).
Recommended Action	Have the agent sign out and sign back in. The agent desktop will then reflect the new layout.
