

Change the current LDAP (Active Directory) to a different one

Problem Summary	To Change the current LDAP/AD to a different one causes a number of issues:
Error Message	Warning: You have changed the LDAP server configuration which will impact user logons, access to rep
Possible Cause	When CUIC changes its LDAP parameters, it will change the CUIC user authentication provider. The fo 1) All domain users which were authenticated by the old LDAP/AD server will not be a 2) All the CUIC objects created/owned by those domain users will become orphans. i.e 3) If originally UCCE user synchronization is enabled and the old LDAP server is the
Recommended Action	Make sure the change of LDAP server is necessary. If so, click "OK", otherwise, click "Cancel".  Once the LDAP server change is made, CUIC security admin user should "clean" up th a) All the dashboards created by those orphan users. b) All the dashboard categories created by those orphan users. c) All the collections created by those orphan users or created by UCCE synch d) All the value lists created by those orphan users. e) All the reports created by those orphan users. f) All the report categories created by those orphan users. g) All the report definitions created by those orphan users. h) All the report definition categories created by those orphan users. a) All the data sources created by those orphan users and not useful any more b) All those orphan users. Note: i) If any object that is created by those orphan users is still used or refe ii) You cannot delete a CUIC object if it is still referenced by any other ob iii) You cannot delete a CUIC user if any object that created by the user stil iv) When deleting a category, make sure all the subcategories, and all the ob
Release	Release 8.0(2)
Associated CDETS #	CSCtf76504