

SocialMiner User Interface - Common Errors

Problem Summary	You see a numerical error code on the screen and are not sure what it means.
Error Message	Various
Possible Cause	Various
Recommended Action	All errors are returned as HTTP 1.1 Status Codes.  http://www.w3.org/Protocols/rfc2616/rfc2616-sec10.html The common codes used by SocialMiner are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 200 OK: Success</li> <li>• 201 Created: The requested item was created.</li> <li>• 202 Accepted: The request was accepted. Generally, a URL is provided to obtain additional details, for example, for polling the OAuth status.</li> <li>• 400 Bad Request: The request is invalid. See the information returned in the ApiErrors message for more details.</li> <li>• 401 Unauthorized: The authentication credentials were not supplied or were incorrect.</li> <li>• 404 Not Found: The URI requested does not exist on the server.</li> <li>• 500 Internal Server Error: Something broke on the server. Submit a post to the SocialMiner Forums explaining what you did and the server's response.</li> </ul>
Release	Release 8.5(x)
Associated CDETS #	None