

The scheme is not related to the described configuration.

Moreover the bridged mode needs more configuration to avoid loops on the network, like an ACL to permit the BPDU and perhaps some configuration on external switch. Documentation are very light on that.

What about the configuration of the admin context ?