

ICMDBA Log and Data Percents Differ

Problem Summary	ICMDBA displays different values for the log and data % used between the two sides.
Error Message	None.
Possible Cause	The data and log size discrepancy shown between Logger A and Logger B database is normal, for the following reasons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The historical data content could differ depending how accuracy will be recovery synchronization between Logger A and Logger B.</li> <li>• SQL server may manage the data and log pages differently on each system</li> <li>• The data checkpoint mechanism in effect at a particular time may cause differences.</li> </ul>
Recommended Action	No action required.
Release	Release 7.5(1) and 8.0
Associated CDETS #	None.